Glacier National Park Commemorates 100 Years

Centennial celebration includes activities and events to mark the anniversary

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK, MT (May 6, 2010) – On May 11, Glacier will mark 100 years as a national park. To honor the anniversary, the Centennial Program is focusing on the legacy of the park and promoting the Centennial as a time to celebrate, inspire and engage. To share one of our nation’s jewels, more than 100 events and programs are taking place throughout the Centennial year. Glacier National Park is located on the Waterton-Glacier International Peace Park Loop, part of the Top 10 Scenic Drives in the Northern Rockies.

No matter when you’re visiting during the summer season, you are sure to find fun-filled and educational activities focused on Glacier’s Centennial. Key events, include:
