

Beartooth road trip slated

The Beartooth All-American Road will be the last of the Top 10 Scenic Drives in the Northern Rockies on the 'Rockies or Bust' road trip. Late in the Trip, Sheri Wallace, Executive Editor for roadtripsforfamilies.com and her family will weave their way from northwest Montana to Billings. On July 28, the Wallace's 'Rockies or Bust' trip will take them from Billings west on I-90 to Livingston, south to Lamar Valley in Yellowstone National Park and out of the Park at the NE Entrance where they will begin their journey eastward along the Beartooth All-American Road. They plan to be camp near Cooke City on July 28, travel up and over Beartooth Pass to Red Lodge on July 29 and head for home in Tucson, Ariz., via Casper, Wyo., on July 30. Sheri Wallace will be blogging about their journey on roadtripsforfamilies.com. Be sure to check out what she says about the Top 10 Scenic Drives in the Northern Rockies and your town as they travel over 6,000 miles in five states and two Canadian Provinces.

For more information about the Top 10 Scenic Drives in the Northern Rockies, check out drivethetop10.com

Carbon County News July 15, 2010